CENTER FOR FAITH AND FREEDOM WINS SIX TELLY AWARDS AT 29TH ANNUAL COMPETITION

(Sarasota, FL-March 12, 2008) - The Center for Faith and Freedom, a non-profit organization that has been serving communities across the nation since 1989 with its multi-media and production capabilities, is the recipient of 6 Telly Awards in five separate categories. The 29th Annual Telly Awards competition received over 14,000 entries from some of the nation's most respected production companies, ad agencies, television stations and other media related corporations.

The Center's core program service, Salt and Light Productions received three awards for its video production of Manasota BUDS in the categories of charitable/non-profit, social issues and copywriting. Salt and Light's production of Gifts from God won three awards for charitable/non-profit, fund raising and religion/spirituality.

"Our organization is once again grateful to be recognized for our commitment to excellence," noted Founder and President Stuart J. Roth. "We are dedicated to helping those less fortunate and sometimes overlooked members of society by sharing their stories and testimonies with the community. Our goal is to help inspire and encourage charities by equipping them with the necessary multi-media tools to communicate their message and vision to donors, program recipients and community leaders."
