CENTER FOR FAITH AND FREEDOM WINS SIX TELLY AWARDS AT 30TH ANNUAL COMPETITION

(Sarasota, FL-June 19, 2009) - The Center for Faith and Freedom, a non-profit organization that has been serving communities across the nation since 1989 with its multi-media and production capabilities, is the recipient of 6 Telly Awards in four separate categories. The 30th Annual Telly Awards competition received over 13,000 entries from some of the nation's most respected production companies, ad agencies, television stations and other media related corporations.

The Center's core program service, Salt and Light Productions received 3 awards for its video production for Hope Seeds in the categories of charitable/non-profit, fund raising and religion, 2 awards for its video production for Take Stock in Children in the categories of charitable/non-profit and recruitment and the silver award for fund raising for the Child Protection Center's video presentation.

"Our organization is once again grateful to be recognized for our commitment to excellence," noted Founder and President Stuart J. Roth. "We are dedicated to helping those less fortunate and sometimes overlooked members of society by sharing their stories and testimonies with the community. Our goal is to help inspire and encourage charities by equipping them with the necessary multi-media tools to communicate their message and vision to donors, program recipients and community leaders."
