CENTER FOR FAITH AND FREEDOM WINS FIVE TELLY AWARDS AT THE 31ST ANNUAL COMPETITION

(Sarasota, FL-June 14, 2010) - The Center for Faith and Freedom, a non-profit organization that has been serving communities across the nation since 1989 with its multi-media and production capabilities, is the recipient of 5 Telly Awards in four separate categories. The 31st Annual Telly Awards competition received over 13,000 entries from some of the nation's most respected production companies, ad agencies, television stations and other media related corporations.

The Center's core program service, Salt and Light Productions received 3 awards for its video production for Safe Place and Rape Crisis Center (SPARCC) in the categories of charitable/non-profit, fund raising and social issues. The Center also received awards for First Step of Sarasota, Inc in the category of charitable/non-profit and for Christian Fellowship Mission in the category of videography/cinematography.

"Our organization is once again grateful to be recognized for our commitment to excellence," noted Founder and President Stuart J. Roth. "We are dedicated to helping those less fortunate and sometimes overlooked members of society by sharing their stories and testimonies with the community. Our goal is to help inspire and encourage charities by equipping them with the necessary multi-media tools to communicate their message and vision to donors, program recipients and community leaders."
