CENTER FOR FAITH AND FREEDOM ACCEPTING COST-SHARING GRANT APPLICATIONS FOR 2012 PROJECTS

(Sarasota, FL-January 4, 2012) – The Center for Faith and Freedom (CFF), a non-profit organization that has been serving communities across the nation since 1989 with its multi-media and production capabilities is currently accepting grant applications for its 2012 projects. Through its selection process CFF will offer a limited number of non-profit organizations a cost-sharing grant that will subsidize a percentage of the production costs associated with its video presentation. The Center’s internationally acclaimed and award-winning production affiliate Salt & Light Productions has been the recipient of 2 Emmy and 26 Telly Awards and is widely-recognized as the premier production company serving the non-profit community.

Stuart J. Roth, Founder and President of CFF commented, “We are pleased to be able to offer non-profit organizations in our community the opportunity to work with us in producing a high-end media presentation. I understand that we are in difficult economic times and we know from many years of experience that a video presentation is an indispensable tool for marketing and development efforts.”

CFF has a limited number of available slots for our 2012 portfolio. Applications must be received by February 10, 2012 to ensure organizations are considered for this important opportunity.
