

CENTER for FAITH and FREEDOM

SALT & LIGHT PRODUCTIONS AWARDS GRANT TO TAYLOR EMMONS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

(Sarasota, FL - February 16, 2012) – Salt & Light Productions, a project of the Center for Faith and Freedom, announced today that it has awarded a cost-sharing grant to the Taylor Emmons Scholarship Fund. The Taylor Emmons Scholarship Fund provides opportunities for socio-economically diverse students to experience an independent college preparatory education at The Out-of-Door Academy's Upper School. The fund was created after the untimely and tragic death of Taylor Emmons, an accomplished student and baseball player at The Out-of-Door Academy.

Stuart J. Roth, Founder and President of CFF commented, "We are pleased to be able to offer non-profit organizations like the Taylor Emmons Scholarship Fund the opportunity to work with us in producing a high-end media presentation. I understand that we are in challenging economic times and we know from many years of experience that a video presentation is an indispensable tool for marketing and development efforts."

The Center for Faith and Freedom (CFF), a non-profit organization that has been serving communities across the nation since 1989 with its multi-media and production capabilities is currently accepting grant applications for its 2012 projects. Through its selection process CFF will offer a limited number of non-profit organizations a cost-sharing grant that will subsidize a percentage of the production costs associated with its video presentation. The Center's internationally acclaimed and award-winning production affiliate Salt & Light Productions has been the recipient of 2 Emmy and 26 Telly Awards and is widely-recognized as the premier production company serving the non-profit community.

For further information about the Center for Faith and Freedom and to see our award winning videos, please visit our website at www.faithandfreedom.org or contact Patty Dodson at 941.487.4061.

###